

ADAM MORTON

Personal Details

Canadian and European (UK) citizen
email address: adam.morton@ubc.ca
<http://www.fernieroad.ca/>

Degrees

B.A. Mathematics & Philosophy (McGill), Ph.D. Philosophy (Princeton)

Academic Appointments

Assistant Professor, Princeton University, 1971-77
Associate Professor, University of Ottawa, 1978-79
Professor of Philosophy, University of Bristol, 1979 - 2000
Professor of Philosophy, University of Oklahoma, 2001-2004
Canada Research Chair in Epistemology and Decision Theory, University of Alberta, 2004 - 2011
Visiting Professor Emeritus, UBC, 2011 - 2016
Visiting Professor, University of Michigan, spring 1984
Visiting Professor in the Royal Institute of Philosophy/Chinese Academy of Social Sciences summer school of Philosophy, Beijing 1988
Sutton Chair in Philosophy, University of Oklahoma, 1990-91
Weinberg distinguished visiting professor, University of Michigan, spring 2001.
Clark-Way-Harrison Distinguished Visitor, Washington University, fall 2003
External Examinerships at Trinity College Dublin, University of East Anglia, Sussex University, London School of Economics, University of Reading.

learned societies

Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada (lapsed for non-payment of fees!)
Canadian Philosophical Association (president 2013-14)
Aristotelian Society (president, 1998-99)
American Philosophical Association

PhD students

Alberta: Seyed Mousavian, Christopher Lepock, John Simpson, Shaheen Islam, Andrei Buleandra, Joel Buenting, Octavian Ion, Michael Lockhart
Bristol: Robert Klamer, David Weir, Julien Deonna, Ross Cogan, Carlos Fane, Anthony Lavers, (unofficially: Martin Poulter, Antti Karjalainen)

publications: see separate list